WHAT YOU CAN BUY

Izmailovo Market is where you can find all those Russian souvenirs you'd like to take home. From matryoshka dolls to fur hats to lacquer boxes, Izmailovo Market has it all. Bring an extra bag to carry your spoils, but don't bring more money than you're willing to spend!

Izmailovo Market has a ground level and two upper levels. The ground level is where the folk art and other typical Russian souvenirs are sold. The next level up will have you sorting through old spoons, obsolete camera equipment, and other odds and ends. The third tier of the market contains some hardcore antique dealers as well as original artwork. The latter is great for browsing but not so good for your wallet.
